

Scott Cross

Revenue & Innovation – EBM at OnMyWay

Scott Cross is an executive level sales leader in the non-profit technology industry with 25 years of experience selling, building successful teams and leading high performing teams to increased growth.

Scott is a leader who drives a culture of collaboration and success through process creation, refinement and coaching to improve and win. From creating teams to developing tools and playbooks, Scott has a history of accelerating revenue performance.

Scott's track record outlines his proven ability to maximize performance and goal attainment for individuals, teams and organizations. His passion and experience for the nonprofit and corporate social responsibility markets align to OnMyWay's leadership team and direction.

